The United Spaniel Association is pleased to welcome everyone to our seminars – not just sporting spaniel enthusiasts. For those who have been before,- we hope to see you again, and for those who are thinking of attending for the first time – you are assured of a warm welcome and an interesting day in good company.

TERRY ARNETT

Was a serving police officer with the West Midlands police and has trained and worked with police dogs for many years in all their different roles. The diversity of work which police dogs carry out is truly amazing from drug sniffing to cadaver searching. His training methods are useful for training any dog.
Terry works for the charity Pilgrim Bandits who support injured servicemen, through providing prosthesis and adventure outlets to help them with rehabilitation. The Pilgrim Bandits are our chosen charity for profits from the day at this seminar.

KIM RUFUS

Is not only qualified as a canine masseuse but is also a registered veterinary nurse. She is the owner of Macoby Canine Massage which is a form of natural pain relief for dogs. her talk will discuss the benefits of clinical canine massage therapy as well as giving a demonstration. There will be time for questions at the end.

SALLY MARCHANT

Sally graduated with honours in ANIMAL BEHAVIOUR AND TRAINING and has been teaching and demonstrating her training techniques since 1997. She runs a successful business providing dogs for TV, film, stage and photo shoots under the name of Dalysdogs.
Sally will talk and demonstrate how to start training your dog to assess if he has the potential to be a star!.

Proceeds from our raffle will be going to the Pilgrim Bandits. The servicemens' charity which helps not only to buy prosthetic limbs for injured servicemen, but to organise adventure challenges to help their reintegration into society after life changing injury.

Our lunch will be a Christmas theme, two course hot meal so come and enjoy the festivities in good company.
